"Bryn Mawr Rehab Hospital is celebrating more than 40 years as a leader in the field of physical and cognitive rehabilitation. The quiet and the beauty of our modern campus, our innovative programs and technology, and the friendliness, competence and teamwork of our staff appeal to patients throughout the region."

Donna M. Phillips President, Bryn Mawr Rehab Hospital

Bryn Mawr Rehab Hospital is a leader in the field of physical medicine and rehabilitation. The 148-bed, not-for-profit hospital offers a full range of rehabilitation services, including acute inpatient care, day treatment and outpatient programs for both adults and adolescents. The staff at Bryn Mawr Rehab Hospital treats brain injury, stroke, spinal cord injury, multiple sclerosis and other neurological disabilities, chronic pain, amputation and other orthopedic problems.

The Main Line Health Outpatient Rehab Network is one of the largest rehabilitation providers in the Philadelphia suburbs and provides rehabilitation services at 10 locations for patients of all ages.

Innovative Bryn Mawr Rehab programs include:

- Cruisin' Smart™, an award-winning program educating elementary through college-age children and young adults about the consequences of distracted and impaired driving.
- Project SEARCH, providing on-the-job training and job coaching for adults with disabilities who want to enter or re-enter the workforce.
- Art Ability, the country's largest, international juried exhibition and sale of art and fine crafts created by artists with cognitive, physical, hearing and visual disabilities.

In 2013, Bryn Mawr Rehab Hospital opened its Comprehensive Outpatient Neurorehabilitation Center. Bryn Mawr Rehab Hospital also offers specialized services such as Aquatic Therapy, Comprehensive Concussion Program, Driver Rehabilitation Program, Horticultural Therapy, Work Hardening, Assistive Technology and Vestibular (balance) Rehabilitation.

Philanthropy

Each year, Bryn Mawr Rehab Hospital receives hundreds of charitable donations—both large and small—from the community. Many people give to the Annual Fund, or make special gifts to projects such as capital campaigns for new facilities and technology, or choose to make planned gifts, such as bequests in their will or an endowment in an area of their interest. Employees are also key contributors. In fiscal year 2014, nearly 50% of Bryn Mawr Rehab employees contributed to the Annual Giving Campaign.
