

Information Regarding Sponsored Clinical Research

The current Main Line Hospitals Institutional Review Board (MLH IRB) fee for review of a new sponsored* clinical study is $2000.00 and $750.00 for a Continuing Review submission. Effective January 1, 2011, these fees will be increased to $2400.00 for new studies and $850.00 for Continuing Review submissions. These fees include the processing of amendments, adverse event reports and other protocol related materials. These fees should be negotiated in all Clinical Trial Agreements/Contracts.

Please remember it is the responsibility of each investigator to budget and obtain the IRB fees. The investigator will be sent an invoice that is due upon receipt. The remittance copy and payment should be sent to:
