

The ABC's of Behavioral Health Services

Main Line Health—Behavioral Health

American Day Treatment Centers | Drexel Hill and Exton

Treating patients 14 years and up with mental disorders and related life problems. Partial day hospital and intensive outpatient group therapy programs, medication management, family support, drug/alcohol education. Individualized treatment goals and aftercare planning. Van transport available for day program.

Bryn Mawr Hospital Inpatient Psychiatric Unit | Bryn Mawr

Acute care for individuals 17 years and up in crisis with a primary diagnosis of mental illness. Individual and group counseling, medication management, family support, and coordination of aftercare. Co-occurring track for patients with secondary substance abuse issues.

Bryn Mawr Hospital TMS Center | Main Line Health Center in Newtown Square

Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation (TMS)—short term, non-invasive therapy for adults with major depression.

Bryn Mawr Rehab Psychology Associates | Malvern

Assessment and treatment for individuals with a wide range of psychological and emotional issues as well as neurological and physical disabilities. Outpatient services include neuropsychological evaluations, biofeedback and psychotherapy for adolescents through aging adults.

Center for Addictive Diseases | Drexel Hill and Exton

Level of care assessments (ASAM) for alcohol and drug addictions, intensive outpatient and outpatient treatment groups serving adolescents, women, men, older adults. Aftercare coordination. Psychiatric evaluations/medication management care for those with co-occurring disorders. Suboxone treatment and therapy for opiate dependency.

Serving communities throughout the Delaware Valley (Greater Philadelphia Region).
We are in network with most insurances ... please call to verify.

1.888.CARE.898

1.888.227.3898

mainlinehealth.org/behavioral

Main Line Health
Well ahead.[®]