

Learner's Bill of Rights

Main Line Health System recognizes that you are a life-long learner who has chosen to engage in continuing medical education to identify or fill a gap in knowledge, skill, or performance. As part of Main Line Health System's duty to you as a learner, you have the right to expect that your continuing medical education experience with Main Line Health will include:

Content that:

- promotes improvements or quality in healthcare
- is valid, reliable, and accurate
- offers balanced presentations that are free of commercial bias for or against a product/service
- is vetted through a process that resolves any conflicts of interests of planners and faculty
- is driven and based on learning needs, not commercial interests
- addresses the stated objectives or purpose
- is evaluated for its effectiveness in meeting the identified educational need

A learning environment that:

- supports learners' ability to meet their individual needs
- respects and attends to any special needs of the learners
- respects the diversity of groups of learners
- is free of promotional, commercial, and/or sales activities

Disclosure of:

- Relevant financial relationships planners, teachers, and authors have with commercial interests related to the content of the activity
- Commercial support (funding or in-kind resources) of the activity
